Practical example

How does this work?

Introducing Rachel

Personal situation

- Dutch national
- Lives in Thailand for more than 180 days per year
- Retirement visa in Thailand
- Her children are living in the Netherlands
- She doesn't have any permanent home in the Netherlands
- She is not registered in the "bevolkings registratie"
- She receives AOW of € 1,541.53 (gross) per month
- She receives pension from NN of € 1,500 (gross) per month
- She does have a bank account in the Netherlands

How does this work?

The unavoidable question!

Background

Rachel' tax residency
is in Thailand

and source of income
is in Netherlands

Question from Rachel

Where do I need to pay tax?

Avoidance of double taxation

Step 1 - Provisions in the DTA

Article 18 PENSIONS AND ANNUITIES

- Subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Article and paragraph 1 of Article 19, pensions and other similar remuneration paid in consideration of past employment to a resident of one of the States and any annuity paid to such a resident shall be taxable only in that State.
- Note: Article 18 paragraph 2 and 3 are not included in this sheet for simplification reasons.

Explanation:

Pension payments are taxable in the state of resident ➔ The pension income Rachel receives is subject to Thai Tax

Note: We would like to extend our gratitude to Hans Goudriaan for bringing to our attention a tax ruling by a Dutch Tax Court, which determined that Dutch tax is applicable to AOW payments.

Avoidance of double taxation

Step 2 - Thai Personal Income Tax – Assessable Income

Revenue Code Section 41

- Anyone who derives income during a given tax year from employment carried on from inside Thailand (Section 40), or from doing business in Thailand, or from transactions in property situated in Thailand, is subject to Thai tax, regardless of whether the payment of such income is within or outside Thailand
- An individual considered to be a Thai resident for tax purposes, who derives taxable income under Section 40 during a given tax year from 1) employment carried on outside Thailand, or 2) through conducting business outside Thailand, or 3) from transactions involving property situated outside Thailand will be subject to Thai taxation, upon remittance of such assessable income into Thailand.
- Any person physically present in Thailand for a period equal to 180 days in any tax year (i.e., a calendar year), will be deemed a Thai tax resident for the purposes of Thai taxation.

Explanation:

Rachel will be subject to Thai Tax upon remitting the money to Thailand

Avoidance of double taxation

Step 3 - Thai Personal Income Tax – Revenue Department regulation

Ruling Thai Revenue Department

- 1987 Tax Ruling: Only assessable income remitted into Thailand in the same tax year as earned will be subject to tax in Thailand.
- Accordingly, income brought into Thailand in a subsequent tax (i.e., calendar) year will not be subject to tax in Thailand.

Explanation:

Prior to 1 January 2024, Rachel could have kept her money for one year overseas and afterwards she could have transferred it tax free to Thailand.

Note: This has changed as per 1 January 2024!

Tax updates – 2024

Worldwide Income Principle – should become effective for tax year 2026

- Requires an amendment to Section 41 of the Revenue Code.
- The new tax law is currently in drafting process.
- The amendment would stipulate that individuals residing in Thailand for 180 days or more must pay Thai personal income tax on income earned overseas, regardless of whether that income is brought into Thailand or not.
- Based on a recent meeting with Bangkok Revenue Departments – Director General, the new tax law on worldwide income principle is expected to become effective for the tax year – 2026
- LTR visa tax benefits should still apply under a future worldwide income principle, as per the current plannings of the Thai Tax Authorities.

Q&A

Q&A

Seven's questions (1/4)

- Inkomsten uit het buitenland (pensioenen, rente, dividenden, vermogen etc.) die zijn overgemaakt naar Thailand voor 1 januari 2024 zijn niet (meer) belastbaar in Thailand. Klopt dit ?
- Inkomsten uit het buitenland, die zijn verdiend en overgemaakt na 1 januari 2024, zijn in Thailand voortaan, in principe, aan belasting onderhevig.
- Iedereen, die per jaar langer dan 180 dagen in Thailand verblijft, is belastingplichtig.
- De nieuwe regels zijn met name opgesteld om een “gat” in de bestaande Thaise belastingwetgeving te dichten; De maatregel is dan ook met name van toepassing op rijke Thais, die miljarden Baht in het buitenland op een spaarrekening stalden om vervolgens, het jaar er na, deze gelden, volkomen legaal, weer “belastingvrij” naar Thailand over te maken. Helaas lijken de “kleine visjes”, zoals pensionado’s, ook in dit “net” te worden gevangen en het dupe te worden van deze maatregelen.
- De meesten van ons hebben nog nooit een inkomsten belastingaangifte gedaan in Thailand.

Q&A

Seven's Questions (2/4)

- Is het bovenstaande nu officieel per 1 januari 2024 in werking getreden ? Heeft het nu kracht van wet ?
- Zo ja, is de Thaise belastingdienst dan “klaar” om deze belastingmaatregel landelijk uit te voeren ?
- Zijn bijv. alle belastingkantoren al voldoende ingelicht en uitgerust om de toekomstige stroom van buitenlandse aangiftes-in het Engels- te behandelen ?
- In Nederland “nodigt” de belastingdienst je uit om aangifte te doen; Is dat in Thailand ook het geval of moet je zelf aangifte doen ?
- Als ik denk dat ik niet belastingplichtig ben in 2024, moet ik dan toch een aangifte doen in 2025 ?
- Op welk moment moet ik een TIN (Tax Identification) Number aanvragen ?
- Als ik aangifte wil doen over 2024 welke stappen moet ik dan ondernemen voor de deadline van 31 maart 2025 ?

Q&A

Seven's questions (3/4)

- Als ik door een Thais belastingkantoor vervolgens van het “kastje naar de muur” gestuurd word (wat in het verleden regelmatig is gebeurd) en ik daardoor niet in staat ben om (tijdig) aangifte te doen wat staat mij dan te doen en wat zijn dan de mogelijke gevolgen?
- Mag ik alleen maar aangifte doen in de plaats waar ik woon of ook elders ?
- Als ik geld overmaak naar Thailand voor de aankoop van onroerend goed, is het bedrag dat ik overmaak dan al belastbaar op het moment dat het Thailand binnentkomt ?
- Als ik voor 1 januari 2024 al genoeg vermogen heb opgebouwd om van te leven en ik maak gelden uit dat vermogen over naar Thailand na 1 januari 2024, zijn deze gelden dan belastingvrij ? Zo ja, moet ik dan toch aangifte doen in 2025; hoe toon ik dat dan aan ?
- Hoe zit dat met de belasting op wereldwijd inkomen ? Is dit nog in een te vroeg stadium om hier uitgebreid op in te gaan ?
- Als ik geld “schenk” aan mijn directe familie in Thailand (dit kan tot 20 mio. baht per jaar), ben ik dan niet belastingplichtig ? Wat betekent dit voor de belastingplicht van het familielid waar ik die schenking aan doe ? Mag ik die gelden vervolgens gewoon gebruiken voor mijn/onze dagelijkse levensbehoeften of zijn aan de besteding ervan regels verbonden ?

Q&A

Seven's questions (4/4)

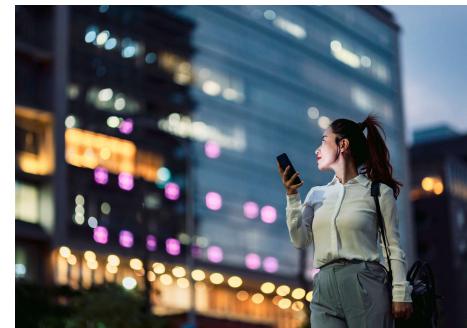

- Prive pensioen uitkeringen, die in 2024 naar Thailand zijn overgemaakt, moeten in Thailand worden aangegeven omdat het "oude" belastingverdrag tussen Nederland en Thailand nog steeds van kracht is; daar in staat dat Thailand heffingsbevoegd is. Klopt dit?
- Moet je je AOW inkomen over 2024 ook opgeven in je Thaise aangifte in 2025 nu er in Nederland al belasting over is geheven ? zo ja, mag de Thaise fiscus dan alsnog (dubbel) heffen over de AOW omdat dit niet duidelijk in het belastingverdrag tussen Nederland en Thailand is vastgelegd ?
- Als het nieuwe belastingverdrag in werking is getreden hoe toon ik dan aan dat ik in Nederland belasting heb betaald ?; dit, ter voorkoming van het betalen van dubbele belasting ? De definitieve aanslag is in het Nederlands. Is een gecertificeerde vertaling in het Engels van deze definitieve aanslag voldoende of moet er een notariele verklaring getoond worden, die is gelegaliseerd door de Thaise ambassade ?
- Zijn LTR visa houders vrijgesteld van het doen van aangifte ?
- Wat als je geen aangifte doet en wacht tot dat de Thaise fiscus bij je aanklopt ?
- Of zal het allemaal zo'n vaart niet lopen ?
